Steps to Becoming a Teen Volunteer

1. Attend a recruitment session to learn more about our program.

Recruitment sessions are held four times each year. During these sessions you will have the opportunity to visit with current Teen Volunteers to find out exactly what you will be doing.

2. Attend a 4 hour orientation session where you will learn the responsibilities of being a Teen Volunteer. (Lunch included.)

Orientation is held one time per month after recruitment sessions and is mandatory.

3. Begin training period in which you will learn "hands on" the tasks that Teen Volunteers perform.

Following the 16-hour training period, evaluations are given. Upon passing the evaluation you are accepted as a full-fledged Teen Volunteer and receive your MJEH Teen Volunteer polo.
